WHAT IS THIS PRODUCT?

The product through which you are investing is a single premium investment bond. Further information regarding the risks and features of the bond can be found in the product guide. With regard to the fund you have chosen to invest in, its objective is to invest in a variety of short and medium term Euro cash deposits. The aim of the fund is to deliver a return whilst providing a high degree of liquidity and preserving capital over the short to medium term; however, this is not guaranteed. At times, the fund may be unable to produce any positive return as a result of a negative interest rate. Capital erosion will occur where a negative interest rate is being applied.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT COULD I GET IN RETURN?

Risk indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 1, which is the lowest risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a very low level, and poor market conditions as very unlikely to impact the amount you could get back. This product does not include any protection from future market performance. You could lose some or all of your investment.

Investment Performance Information

Investment in any fund carries with it a degree of risk. The risks described below are the main risks that potential investors should consider before investing in the Fund. Potential investors should be aware that holding an investment in a fund also involves exposure to risks of an exceptional nature from time to time, which are not set out here. Potential investors should consider all risks before investing in the Fund. The capital of the Fund is not guaranteed. The money you could get back will depend on how the market performs and how long you keep the investment. The main factor likely to affect future returns for investors is changes in interest rates. In extreme market conditions counterparty risk could also affect your returns. This is because the Fund is exposed to the creditworthiness and stability of the banking institutions with which its cash deposits are placed. As the cash deposits are held in the name of Utmost International Isle of Man Limited, they are not covered by any depositor compensation scheme. In the event of the insolvency of a counterparty, the Fund might not be able to recover cash, or assets of equivalent value to that invested, in full or at all. This will negatively affect the value of the Fund. The Fund is benchmarked against Morningstar's Money Market category. When compared to this category, due to its narrower strategy which restricts investments into cash deposits and prohibits the wider use of money market instruments, the Fund may perform less favourably in certain conditions, however it is also likely to be less volatile.

What could affect my return positively?

A high interest rate environment may help the Fund generate higher returns.

What could affect my return negatively?

A low interest rate environment will result in the Fund generating lower returns. If interest rates are negative, capital erosion and therefore investment loss will occur. If the Fund is redeemed or encashed under severely adverse market conditions, investors may receive back less than they originally invested, or lose their capital entirely.

WHAT HAPPENS IF UTMOST INTERNATIONAL ISLE OF MAN LIMITED IS UNABLE TO PAY OUT?

Utmost International Isle of Man Limited is covered by the Isle of Man Life Assurance (Compensation of Policyholders) Regulations 1991. If we cannot meet our obligations the policyholders will be entitled to claim up to 90% of our liabilities to them as compensation. The assets to which the value of the bond is linked are held in our name. This means that you do not have any automatic rights to compensation should the underlying fund manager or deposit taker fail. In these circumstances our liability to you will be limited to such amounts, if any, that we can recover from any third party.

WHAT ARE THE COSTS?
