- › You can appoint independent investment experts to help manage your bond if you wish.

FINANCIAL PLANING

THE BOND CAN BE USED WITH A COMPREHENSIVE RANGE OF TRUST FACILITIES FOR ESTATE PLANNING AND ASSET PROTECTION.

YOU HAVE THE OPTION TO NOMINATE BENEFICIARIES OF THE BOND.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN I DIE, OR ON THE DEATH OF ANOTHER POLICYHOLDER?

The treatment of your policy when a death occurs depends on whether there are surviving policyholders.

If a policyholder has died and at least one policyholder is still alive, the bond will continue and will automatically transfer to the surviving policyholder(s).

If the last policyholder has died, the bond will continue until the end of the 99-year term. Ownership of the bond will pass to one of the following parties:

- › If there is a nominated beneficiary, ownership will be transferred to them.
- › If the bond is subject to a trust, then the bond continues to be owned by the trustees of the trust*.
- › In all other cases, ownership will be transferred to the legal personal representatives of the deceased policyholder's estate. They can then choose whether to:
 - keep the bond and appoint a beneficiary to become the policyholder by executing a deed of assignment, or
 - encash the bond to pay the proceeds to your estate's beneficiaries.

* the legal personal representative of the last trustee will appoint replacement trustees when the last trustee dies.

NEXT STEPS

To ensure you fully understand all the risks and benefits of the Executive Redemption Bond, you should also read the product brochure and the Details of your Executive Redemption Bond Terms and Conditions.

At Utmost International we believe strongly in the benefit of professional financial advice and encourage clients to review their circumstances and financial planning needs with their financial adviser before investing in the Executive Redemption Bond. You should also ensure you have obtained information on the funds you are investing in, which is available from your financial adviser, or from our website www.utmostinternational.com

Your investment may fall or rise in value and you may not get back what you put in.
