The Insurer is bound by Luxembourg law to keep confidential all information it receives in the course of its professional activity. The Insurer cannot fully discharge its obligations in connection with the Policy without disclosing Information to certain third parties.

The information to be transferred or made available to third parties (the "Recipients or Recipient") as listed above and below in relation to the Policyholder, the Beneficiary, the Life Assured, their respective Beneficial Owners and representatives or directors, includes in particular for individuals surname, first name, address, date and place of birth and nationality, and for legal entities corporate name, registered office, legal form, registration number for legal entities, the aforementioned data on individuals for the Beneficial Owner(s) and its representative(s) or directors. The Confidential Information to be transferred or made available includes also for any person their contact details such as phone numbers, address and e-mail addresses as well as financial data, usage data in relation to the Insurer's services or any other data that could be collected by the Insurer in order to comply with its legal and regulatory obligations (all such data being referred to as the "Confidential Information").

The Policyholder therefore authorises the Insurer to communicate the Confidential Information to the Recipients and to execute any document that may be necessary to the execution of the Policy.

The Policyholder specifically accepts and consents to the disclosure of the Confidential Information to the following Recipients:

- (a) Custodian bank, investment manager, tax representative, adviser, intermediary, aggregator, insurance distributor or third party acting in connection with the Policy (and any of their officers, agents or employees), any Beneficiary or Life Assured, all of which may be appointed from time to time on the Policy and confirmed in writing by the Insurer to the Policyholder or any service provider.

Name and address of the aggregator:

- (b) Register or authority acting in accordance with its powers, whether local or central, national or foreign, judicial, administrative, fiscal, surveillance, governmental or regulatory (an "Authority") acting in the context of their powers and missions, in particular (but without limitation) in case of inspections, requests for information and audits performed by them.
- (c) Any entity belonging to the same group as the Insurer whether located in, but not limited to, the EEA, United Kingdom, Isle of Man or Guernsey.
- (d) Any other entity not belonging to the same group which is providing or may provide services in the future to the Insurer. The list of these entities is available on the following website: www.utmostgroup.com/IDA-Outsourcing. The Policyholder acknowledges that this list may evolve and therefore undertakes to regularly consult the aforementioned website to have an up-to-date view on all Recipients.

- (e) In the context of the outsourcing arrangements, the Insurer uses a variety of service providers (some belonging to its group and some being third party service providers) to help the Insurer to provide its services in an efficient and qualitative manner. The use of such service providers requires that the Insurer transfers or makes available some Confidential Information to them. The Policyholder agrees to such outsourcing arrangements and instructs the Insurer to transfer or make accessible Confidential Information (as further defined above) to a number of service providers regarding notably but not limited to, technical (including IT), operational, payment processing, internal control, customer due diligence (including background or Policy checks), fraud prevention, risk assessment, product development, maintenance and debugging, advertising, processing of insurance claims, customer support and other services.

The Confidential Information may be transferred to the United Kingdom, Ireland, Isle of Man or Guernsey. Such Confidential Information transfers will take place throughout the term of the business relationship between the Parties as well as for an additional period as permitted by law after the end of the business relationship.

Notwithstanding the above circumstances, the Insurer may be brought, notably in order to enhance the quality of the services provided to the Policyholder or to ensure such services are provided in line with the best industry standards, to exchange Confidential Information with other third-party service providers outside of the context of an outsourcing or a sub-outsourcing.

Such a disclosure of Confidential Information is made in the Policyholder's interest as it will enable the Insurer to provide high-quality services including by enabling the Policyholder to benefit from a faster and more seamless onboarding experience, more efficient administration of the Policy, more performing reporting tools and ultimately a higher quality of services. The Confidential Information will be disclosed to the parent company of the Insurer or any subsidiary or associated company, either existing or to be created, among others, for example, to Utmost Patrimoine SAS, Utmost Wealth Advisers Limited, Utmost Patrimonio Iberia S.L., Utmost Wealth Portugal, Unipessoal LDA, Utmost Services Limited, Utmost Services Ireland Limited, Utmost PanEurope dac, Utmost International Isle of Man Limited and Utmost International Group Holdings Limited in this context. The Confidential Information may also be disclosed to DEGRE di Ugo de Grenet & C. sas, with registered office in Italy. Such Confidential Information transfers will take place throughout the term of the business relationship between the parties as well as for an additional period as permitted by law after the end of the business relationship.

The Policyholder specifically accepts and consents to the above disclosure.

A Recipient may communicate Confidential Information to its group entities in the discharge of its obligations in connection with the Policy. It may also do so in connection with a group restructuring, portfolio transfer or transfer of services or activities, in which case the Insurer is authorised to deal with the entity acquiring the portfolio, service or activity.

The Policyholder warrants that any communication of the personal data of a third party has been authorised by that third party.

The Policyholder acknowledges and expressly consents that the Confidential Information may be transferred to and stored in cloud-based systems operated by third party services providers, which may be located outside of Luxembourg or the European Economic Area (EEA). The Policyholder understands that such cloud environments may not be under the direct control of the Insurer, and data protection standards in those locations may differ from those in Luxembourg or the EEA.

Where the Confidential Information is transferred to countries that do not ensure an equivalent level of data protection as provided under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the Insurer will comply with Chapter V of the GDPR to ensure that the level of data protection afforded to personal data does not diminish when it is transferred internationally.

This agreement will survive the death of, or commencement of insolvency proceedings against, the Policyholder. If the Policyholder, the Insurer or a Recipient is the subject of an acquisition, merger, conversion or consolidation into or by another corporate entity, the resulting entity will be the legal and/or contractual successor of such party. The Insurer or Policyholder may terminate this agreement without notice within 30 days of being informed of such an event.

This agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with Luxembourg law and the courts of Luxembourg will have exclusive competence over any dispute relating to it.
