

DISCOUNTED GIFT TRUST DEED

(ENGLISH LAW - BARE VERSION) APRIL 2023

This deed should be used with ex-Quilter products or the following range of product types only:

Executive Investment Bonds/Portfolios/Accounts (including European Collective Investment Bond), Wealth Portfolio Bonds, Managed Capital Accounts and Life Insurance Portfolios.

NOTES FOR COMPLETION

The following notes are referenced throughout this document. Please read them carefully as they will help you complete this document accurately. All references to Utmost in this trust deed means either Utmost International Isle of Man Limited or Utmost PanEurope dac.

1. In submitting this document, depending on the property being gifted, you are requesting Utmost to date the document and bring the Trust into effect when a specific action takes place. This is called an escrow and so until that action has been completed no Trust will exist.

Where the property being gifted already exists then you must date the document which will bring the Trust into existence.
2. If the Settlor is to be a Trustee as well then it is essential that the part of the document identifying the Trustees is correctly completed by showing the Settlor as a Trustee. It is not necessary to insert the full names again and 'the first Settlor' and/or 'the second Settlor' will suffice. It is also important that the first and/or second Settlor signs the document twice, as Settlor and also as Trustee.
3. By completing the date of birth and relationship to the Settlor this will enable the Trustees to identify the Beneficiaries.
As you are using the Bare version of the Discounted Gift Trust, it is not possible to change the Beneficiaries at a later date.
4. Level Payments: by completing the first box in the Third Schedule you are choosing the payment (as a percentage of the initial premium) that you will receive each year. The second box allows you to choose a Start Date of payments. This will be the specified number of months after the Declaration Date. As payments are made in arrears this must be at least one month but no more than sixty months. The third box allows you to choose your frequency of payments - this must be monthly, quarterly, half-yearly or yearly. Once chosen, the amount and frequency cannot be changed as this forms part of the Trust provisions.
5. Escalating Payments: the first box allows you to choose a Start Date of payments. This will be the specified number of months after the Declaration Date. As payments are made in arrears this must be at least one month but no more than sixty months. The second box allows you to choose your frequency of payments - this must be monthly, quarterly, half-yearly or yearly. By completing the third box you are choosing the payment (as a percentage of the initial premium) that you will receive in the first year when a payment is made. The fourth box allows you to choose your escalation rate. Once chosen, the amount, frequency and escalation rate cannot be changed as this forms part of the Trust provisions.
6. Appointment of a Protector is not essential but if a non-UK resident Trustee is to be appointed, then some Settlers may feel more comfortable knowing that Trustee dispositive functions (ie functions relating to the distribution of assets) will require the consent of another party appointed to oversee the carrying out of those functions. Obviously, that party must consent to the appointment and so will be required to sign the document.
7. This is the name the Settlor gives to the Settlement. For example, 'the Mary Jones Discounted Gift Trust 2008' where Mary Jones is the Settlor.

Identifying the parties

In order for Utmost to comply with the Irish and Isle of Man anti-money laundering legislation and guidelines, it will be necessary for proof of the identity and address of the Settlor, joint owner if any, and all Trustees and any Protector to be established. In addition any persons who are likely to benefit from the Trust Property should also be identified in the same manner.

Trust registration - important information

Once the trust is set up, it may need to be registered. Failure to do so could result in a fine.

Under the EU's fifth money laundering directive (5MLD) a trust may be required to register, where it is deemed to be resident in a participating EU Member State, and in this context includes the UK despite no longer being part of the EU. This is generally driven by the residency of the trustees and the settlor, and the location of the trust's property or other business relationships.

Each country/EU Member State has its own rules regarding residency of a trust. For example, where the trustees and/or settlor are UK resident, the trust will be deemed to be resident in the UK and is required to be registered with HMRC's trust registration service within 90 days of the declaration of trust. Trusts which have business relationships in another EU Member State may also need to be registered there as well.

Please speak to your financial adviser for further information regarding trust registration.

- (e) The Trustees may (subject to the jurisdiction of the Court) determine whether receipts and liabilities are to be considered as capital or income, and whether expenses ought to be paid out of capital or income provided that no expenses properly attributable to the Settlor's Fund shall be paid out of either capital or income of the Residual Fund. The Trustees shall not be liable for any act done in pursuance of such determination (in the absence of fraud or wilful default) even though it shall subsequently be held to have been wrongly made.

(14) Supervision of company

The Trustees are under no duty to enquire into the conduct of a company in which they are interested, unless they have knowledge of circumstances which call for enquiry.

(19) Ancillary powers

The Trustees may do anything which is incidental or conducive to the exercise of their function.

2. Minors

The Trustees are under no duty to enquire into the use of the income unless they have knowledge of circumstances which call for enquiry.
- (2) Where the Trustees may apply income for the benefit of a minor, they may do so by resolving that they hold that income on trust for the minor absolutely and:

 - (a) 'A Fiduciary' means a person subject to fiduciary duties under this Settlement.
 - (b) 'An Independent Trustee', in relation to a person, means a Trustee who is not:
 - (i) a brother, sister, ancestor, descendant or dependant of the person;
 - (ii) a spouse or Civil Partner of the person or a spouse or Civil Partner of anyone at sub-paragraph 6(1)(b)(i) above; or
 - (iii) a company controlled by one or more of any of the above.
- (2) Subject to paragraph 6(3) below a Fiduciary may:
 - (a) enter into a transaction with the Trustees; or
 - (b) be interested in an arrangement in which the Trustees are or might have been interested; or
 - (c) act (or not act) in any other circumstances even though his fiduciary duty under the Settlement conflicts with other duties or with his personal interest.
- (3) Paragraph 6(2) above only has effect if:
 - (a) the Fiduciary first discloses to the Trustees the nature and extent of any material interest conflicting with his fiduciary duties, and
 - (b) there is an Independent Trustee in respect of whom there is no conflict of interest, and he considers that the transaction arrangement or action is not contrary to the general interest of the Settlement.
- (4) The powers of the Trustees may be used to benefit a Trustee (to the same extent as if he were not a Trustee) provided that there is at least one Trustee in respect of whom there is no conflict of interest.

7. Absolute discretion clause

- (1) The Powers of the Trustees may be exercised:
 - (a) at their absolute discretion; and
 - (b) from time to time as occasion requires.
- (2) The Trustees are not under any duty to consult with any Beneficiaries or to give effect to the wishes of any Beneficiaries.

8. Trustee and Protector remuneration

- (1) A Trustee or Protector acting in a professional capacity is entitled to receive reasonable remuneration out of the Trust Fund for any services that he provides on behalf of the Trust.
- (2) For this purpose, a Trustee or Protector acts in a professional capacity if he acts in the course of a profession or business which consists of or includes the provision of services in connection with:
 - (a) the management or administration of trusts generally or a particular kind of trust, or

 - (a) the person would in the normal course of business receive and retain the commission or profit on such transaction; and
 - (b) the receipt of the commission or profit shall be disclosed to the Trustees.
- (2) A bank may make loans to the Trustees and generally provide banking services upon its usual terms and shall not be liable to account for any profit so made even though the receipt of such profit was procured by an exercise of fiduciary powers (by the bank or some other person).

10. Liability of Trustees

- (1) A Trustee shall not be liable for acting in accordance with the advice of a professional legal adviser qualified under the laws of a relevant jurisdiction, of at least ten years' standing, with respect to this Settlement. The Trustees may in particular conduct legal proceedings in accordance with such advice without obtaining a Court Order. A Trustee may recover from the Trust Fund any expenses where he has acted in accordance with such advice.
- (2) The above sub-paragraph does not apply:
 - (a) if the Trustee knows or has reasonable cause to suspect that the advice was given in ignorance of material facts;
 - (b) if proceedings are pending to obtain the decision of the court on the matter;
 - (c) in relation to a Trustee who has a personal interest (other than his rights to remuneration as a Trustee and to retain commission) in the subject matter of the advice; or
 - (d) in relation to a Trustee who is adjudicated by a competent court to have committed a breach of trust relating to the subject matter of advice.
- (3) The Trustees may distribute Trust Property or income in accordance with this Settlement without having ascertained that there is no person who is or may be entitled to any interest therein by virtue of an illegitimate relationship. The Trustees shall not be liable to such a person unless they have notice of his claim at the time of the distribution.
- (4) No Trustee shall be liable for any breach of trust, or for any loss or damage which may happen to the Trust Fund or its income at any time, or from any cause whatsoever unless such loss or damage shall be caused by his own actual fraud or wilful default.
- (5) This paragraph does not prejudice any right of any person to follow property or income into the hands of any person, other than a purchaser, who may have received it.
- (6) The protection conferred on the Trustees by this paragraph operates to the widest extent permitted by law, but to such extent only.

11. Change of governing law

- (1) The Trustees may during the Trust Period by deed with the consent of the Protector (if any), or otherwise the Settlor during his life, or of two Beneficiaries after his death, declare that from the date of such declaration:
 - (a) The law of any Qualifying Jurisdiction governs the validity of this Settlement, and its construction, effects and administration, or any severable aspects of this Settlement; and
 - (b) The courts of any Qualifying Jurisdiction have exclusive jurisdiction in any proceedings involving rights or obligations under this Settlement.

In this paragraph a 'Qualifying Jurisdiction' is one which recognises trusts (as defined in the Hague Convention on the Law Applicable to Trusts and on their Recognition).
